Pope Francis says: The spirit of the world is conquered with the spirit of faith: believing that God is really in the brother and sister who are close to me.

HUMOR CORNER

While sports fishing off the Florida coast, a tourist capsized his boat. He could swim, but his fear of alligators kept him clinging to the overturned craft.

Spotting an old beachcomber standing on the shore, the tourist shouted, "Are there any gators around here?!"

"Naw," the man hollered back, "they ain't been around for years".

Feeling safe, the tourist started swimming leisurely toward the shore.

About halfway there he asked the guy, "How'd you get rid of the gators?"

"We didn't do nothin'," the beachcomber said. "The sharks got 'em."

PASTOR'S NOTE: Convinced of the indwelling of the Spirit...

We have the introduction of Luke's Gospel and then we also listen to what is commonly known as the manifesto of Jesus. Luke's intention of writing the Gospel is to give a clear indication of who Jesus is and what he achieved in his lifetime. It was, therefore, important to present Jesus as being filled with the Spirit of the Lord. Jesus begins his public ministry by going into the Synagogue, where he grew up, and proclaiming to them the work that God has called him to do. He is rooted in the tradition and beliefs of the Jewish people and he relies on the Scripture to make known what he was going to do. It was important for Jesus to make his own Mission the will of the Father. The Mission of Jesus is today handed over to us, his disciples. We are called to continue the work begun by Jesus and for this, we are all empowered with the Spirit. The challenge is to be guided by the Spirit in everything we do and say.

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful.
And kindle in them the fire of your love.
Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created.
And you will renew the face of the earth.

Lord,
by the light of the Holy Spirit
you have taught the hearts of your faithful.
In the same Spirit
help us to relish what is right and always rejoice in your consolation.
We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.
