HUMOR CORNER:

Doctors have their way...

A young doctor had just opened an office and felt really excited. His secretary told him a man was here to see him. The young doctor told her to send him in.

Pretending to be a busy doctor, he picked up the phone just as the man came in. "Yes, that's right. The fee is $200. Yes, I'll expect you ten past two. Alright. No later. I'm a very busy man."

He hung up and turned to the man waiting. "May I help you?" "No," said the man, "I just came in to install the phone."

A woman went to the doctors office. She was seen by one of the new doctors, but after about 4 minutes in the examination room, she burst out, screaming as she ran down the hall. An older doctor stopped and asked her what the problem was, and she explained. He had her sit down and relax in another room.

The older doctor marched back to the first and demanded, "What's the matter with you? Mrs. Terry is 63 years old, she has four grown children and seven grandchildren, and you told her she was pregnant?"

The new doctor smiled smugly as he continued to write on his clipboard.

"Cured her hiccups though, didn't it?"

PASTOR'S NOTE: Satisfaction of accomplishing the mission...

After his resurrection, Jesus had been with the Apostles, periodically appearing to them in person and encouraging them to be strong in faith. He knows that eventually he has to return to his Father and that the mission has to be continued by the Apostles. While he was in the world, he went about doing the work of the Father. He always sought to do His will, and spoke about the works as being entrusted to him by the Father. In fact the words that he spoke were all a manifestation of the Father's own will. Now it is time to depart and he is not going away with regrets. The mission that is given him is accomplished and now the rest is left to the Apostles and future disciples. He promises the Holy Spirit to empower them in their journey of faith and in fulfilling the mission he gives them. We are all called to have that same kind of satisfaction which Jesus had, by having lived the mission entrusted to us by him.

The cap, the gown, the robe, the crown,
The titles of today -

Like mist before the morning sun,
Will surely pass away.

Conceal your learning while you may,
Nor list to emulation;

Let others seek the road to fame,
Strive not for reputation.

The hill is long and hard to climb
That leads you to success;

True greatness, after all, is just
A test of usefulness. -A.C. Shaw

Congratulations!
