HUMOR CORNER:

When the store manager returned from lunch, he noticed his clerk's hand was bandaged, but before he could ask about the bandage, the clerk had some very good news for him.

"Guess what, sir?" the clerk said. "I finally sold that terrible, ugly suit we've had so long!"

"Do you mean that repulsive pink-and-blue double-breasted thing?!" the manager asked.

"That's the one!"

That's great!" the manager cried, "I thought we'd never get rid of that monstrosity! That had to be the ugliest suit we've ever had! But tell me, why is your hand bandaged?"

"Oh," the clerk replied, "after I sold the guy that suit, his seeing-eye dog bit me."

OFFICE CLOSED:

Diana is taking a short vacation. The office will be closed on Tuesday and Thursday.

PASTOR'S NOTE: Willing to be guided by the Spirit... What better example can we have, than that of our Lord and Master, when we are praying for the grace to withstand temptations? As we journey through the season of Lent, we have a glimpse of the power of Jesus, in his ability to withstand temptations. We know from our own experiences, that temptations appear with great frequency and they tend to make us do things we usually would want to avoid doing. It is when we are most vulnerable that we experience temptations the most. This is where we are given the example of Jesus, on this first Sunday of Lent, to contemplate and to attain strength from. Jesus was vulnerable and yet, his power came from his rootedness in God and thus, he was able to ward off temptations that were so real in his daily life. We are also called to be guided by the Spirit.

Praying the Stations of the Cross will help us to journey with Jesus during the Season of Lent and to be transformed by the love with which he endured the passion. We will be praying the Stations of the Cross during Lent on every Wednesday at 6:30 PM. Let me encourage you to participate in this devotion. Stations will start, March 13.
